

Twenty Years of Printing

National Wholesale Printing Corp [NWCP] celebrated its 20th anniversary by hosting an open house that offered visitors breakfast and a chance to tour the Plymouth facility. As sponsor of a local student art contest, the printer also exhibited some of the students' wonderful work for visitors to see. 1] The staff of NWCP gather for a group photo 2-4] Before heading to school, youths from the art contest came by to see their winning work 5] Reliable Landscaping staff popped in for a print shop tour
